

CAREER COMMUNITY NEWS

Government, Law & International Affairs April 2025

Events:

FBI Honors Internship Info Session

“Learn how to secure an internship with the FBI!”

Students & Alumni | GoinGlobal

“Learn the process of finding a job internationally!”

Sooner Success Shindig – April 23rd and Sooner Success Shindig – April 24th (these come and go events are from 11:00am–2:00pm on the East Lawn of the Union)

Calling all graduating seniors! Whether you’ve landed a job, got into grad school, or are just excited to cross the stage – come celebrate your success with us! We’ll have prize wheel giveaways, photo ops, glitter tattoos, snacks, and more!

Tips and Tricks:

Working a part-time job during college can provide valuable skills that employers look for, regardless of the industry. Even if the job isn’t directly related to your career, highlight transferable skills on your resume to show employers your ability to work in a professional environment and handle real-world responsibilities.

Summer is the perfect time to update your LinkedIn and resume with new experiences, skills, and achievements. Add internships, part-time jobs, volunteer work, or class projects that showcase your abilities. A polished LinkedIn profile helps recruiters find you, while a strong resume ensures you’re ready to apply for opportunities as they arise.

Set your federal career in motion by becoming an intern with the Federal Bureau of Investigation! Applications for their 2026 Honors Internship Program will be open from April 14th to May 2nd.

Featured Articles:

Keys to being successful in the Government

Explore key ways to have a successful career in the Government

“Those working in government today face some of the most complex challenges in the world. These issues can no longer be solved by government officials using traditional problem-solving strategies.” Read more in the article.

Exploring International Opportunities

“What you need to know when exploring international opportunities with GoinGlobal”

Access and Opportunity:

Applying to Federal Positions for Applicants with a Disability

Tips for Applicants with Disabilities when Applying to Federal Positions

“There are many advantages to working for the federal government. Federal employees serve in a wide variety of exciting jobs, earn good wages, receive medical benefits, and make a difference through public service. The federal government hires people in many different fields, from accounting to public affairs, health care to law enforcement, and everything in between.” Read more in the article.

Employer Spotlight:

The mission of the System is to provide indigents with legal representation comparable to that obtainable by those who can afford counsel and to do so in the most cost-effective manner possible.

Career Center Updates:

Big congratulations to our very own Rick Dubler, Associate Director of the OU Career Center! He’ll be recognized at the Staff Senate Awards Ceremony for 15 years of dedicated service to the university. Way to go, Rick!

