

O*NET Overview

The University of Oklahoma

What is O*NET?

O*NET is a database that provides information on a vast variety of occupations. The information provided on this website is standardized so that occupations may be easily compared to each other. Information on each occupation is provided for the knowledges, skills, and abilities needed, along with the activities and tasks performed while on the job.

O*NET Homepage

www.onetonline.org

Start your journey into O*NET here! This homepage will provide you links to more specific areas of the O*NET webpage. This is a great place to begin your search for a future career. The homepage will also keep you informed about any updates to the O*NET system.

The image shows a screenshot of the O*NET homepage with several callout boxes pointing to specific features:

- Top Navigation: Help, Find Occupations, Advanced Search, Crosswalks, Share, O*NET Sites
- Main Header: "Build your future with O*NET OnLine." Includes a welcome message and a "What is O*NET?" link.
- What's New: "Emojis and improved report links within O*NET!" with a "Learn More" link.
- I want to be a...: "Start the career you've dreamed about, or find one you never imagined." with a "Find It Now at My Next Move" link.
- ATTN: VETERANS: "Put your military skills and experience to work in civilian life. Learn how at: MY NEXT MOVE (VETERANS)" with a "Get Started" link.
- Hot Technologies: "Hot Technologies are frequently included in employer job postings." with a "Learn More" link.
- Occupation Search: A search bar with the placeholder "Keyword or O*NET-SOC Code:".
- Find Occupations: "Browse groups of similar occupations to explore careers. Choose from industry, field of work, science area, and more." Includes a "Bright Outlook" dropdown.
- Focus: "Focus on occupations that use a specific tool or software. Explore occupations that need your skills." Includes a "Browse by O*NET Data:" dropdown.
- Crosswalks: "Connect to a wealth of O*NET data. Enter a code or title from another classification to find the related O*NET-SOC occupation." Includes an "Apprenticeship" dropdown.

Callout boxes provide additional information:

- Left Callout: "See the document 'Searching in O*NET' to learn how to search by keyword."
- Bottom Left Callout: "See the document 'O*NET Key Terms' to learn about Bright Outlook, green sectors, career clusters, industries, job families, STEM occupations, and Job Zones."
- Bottom Middle Callout: "To learn how to search by various categories in O*NET, go to the document 'Searching in O*NET.'"
- Bottom Right Callout: "Already have information about an occupation based on an apprenticeship, the DOT, education, military, Occupation Handbook, or the SOC? Start here!"
- Right Callout: "Learn more about the Interest Profiler in the document 'O*NET Resource Center.'"
- Bottom Right Callout: "Are you veteran or currently serving? Go to the document 'O*NET Resource Center' for more information."
- Bottom Right Callout: "Click on this link for more information about occupations on the rise! Learn more in 'O*NET Key Terms.'"

For more information about the information provided on O*NET, how to search for occupations, or the practical uses of O*NET, see the additional O*NET guides provided, including:

-*O*NET Key Terms*

-Occupational Reports

-*Searching on O*NET*

-*O*NET Resource Center*