TRIBAL RELATIONS 101

A WEBINAR AS PART OF THE SPRING 2024 ETHICAL TRIBAL ENGAGEMENT SERIES

This webinar explores the importance of building respectful and collaborative relationships between Tribal Nations and the University of Oklahoma. Building upon the information learned from the Tribal Sovereignty 101 (formerly Tribal Nations 101) webinar, the Tribal Relations 101 seminar emphasizes the significance of honoring tribal sovereignty, engaging in meaningful consultation, and fostering mutual partnerships that benefit all parties involved. Participants learn about the best practices for effective communication and will consider strategies to promote mutual understanding. The overall goal is to cultivate positive and sustainable relationships that support and respect Tribal Nations and tribal sovereignty.
